Reasons to Own

- 1. Fully Allocated – The Trust only holds fully allocated and unencumbered precious metals – no exceptions.
- 2. Redeemable for Metals – Unitholders have the ability to redeem their units for physical silver bullion on a monthly basis, subject to certain minimum requirements.¹
- 3. Trustworthy Storage – The Trust’s metals will be held in custody by the Royal Canadian Mint, a Federal Crown Corporation of the Government of Canada.
- 4. Potential Tax Advantage – The Trust may offer a potential tax advantage for certain non-corporate U.S. investors. Gains realized on the sale of the Trust’s units can be taxed at a capital gains rate of 15%/20%² versus the 28% collectibles rate applied to most precious metals ETFs, coins and bars.
- 5. Easy to Buy, Sell and Own – Trust units can be purchased on any open trading day for the New York Stock Exchange or Toronto Stock Exchange. No need for investors to handle, secure or protect physical metal.
- 6. A Liquid Investment – With average daily trading volume of C$2.5 million, trust units are highly liquid and can be sold on any open trading day at the New York Stock Exchange or Toronto Stock Exchange.

The Case for Silver

The gold/silver ratio has averaged 68 from 1988-2019, but currently stands at 85. This means that silver is significantly cheaper than gold, based on the historical averages.

Silver's Biggest Use is Industrial

We believe growing silver demand is underpinned by synchronized global economic growth and an uptick in industrial demand, especially for solar photovoltaic technology.
